IN THE MATTER OF	§

OFFICE	§

GENERAL ORDER DESIGNATING CLERK'S OFFICE ACCESSIBLE

On September 4, 2021, this Court issued General Order 2021-1, related to operations of this Court after the occurrence of Hurricane Ida. Paragraph 6 of that General Order declared:

Although the Bankruptcy Court is accepting and processing e-filed pro se petitions for bankruptcy relief and filings of petitions and pleadings through CM/ECF, for purposes of Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a)(3) only, the Clerk's Office located at 500 Poydras Street is deemed to be physically inaccessible from August 30, 2021, until further Order of this Court. Self-represented parties are granted an extension of time within which to file papers in person through and including October 12, 2021, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a)(3).

This General Order amends General Order 2021-1 by deleting Paragraph 6 only to the extent that it deems the Bankruptcy Court Clerk's Office to be inaccessible for purposes of Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a)(3). The Clerk's Office is deemed accessible as of September 22, 2021 for purposes of Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a)(3).

SO ORDERED.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this 22nd day of September, 2021.
